VIEW ON MARKET PERFORMANCE

Nifty gained for the day but logged its worst week in nearly 2 months on May 10 as nervous election related unloading continued albeit at a slower pace. At close, Nifty was up 0.44% or 97.7 points at 22055.2. Cash market volumes on the NSE fell about 13% to Rs.0.87 lakh cr. Broad market indices rose more than the Nifty even as the advance decline ratio rose sharply to 1.84:1.

Global equities were mostly higher on Friday on earnings optimism and US data that supported the case for interest-rate cuts.

India's strong earnings are bolstering its position, according to Citi Research, which has upgraded the country to 'overweight' in its emerging market allocation. Meanwhile, despite the recent rally in the world's second-largest economy, Citi Research downgraded China to 'neutral' due to the weakening fundamentals.

Nifty formed an inside day on May 10 taking support from the uptrend line on closing basis. On weekly basis, Nifty fell 1.87% - the sharpest fall since the week ended March 15, 2024. On weekly charts, Nifty formed a long bear candle. Nifty could after a small bounce continue the downtrend. The Nifty could stay in the 21777-22232 band for the near term.
